White Mountain Apache Tribe
CARES Act Grant Application for Cattle Associations and Churches on the Fort Apache Indian Reservation

Background

On March 27, 2020 the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (“CARES”) Act was signed into law. The purpose of the CARES Act is to protect the people from the public health and economic impacts of COVID-19.

The White Mountain Apache Tribe (“Tribe”) is extending the opportunity for cattle associations and churches within the Fort Apache Indian Reservation boundaries to apply for a small grant made available through the Tribe’s CARES Act funding.

Eligibility

Eligible recipients for the Tribe’s CARES Act grants are limited to cattle associations and churches within the Fort Apache Indian Reservation boundaries that have been affected by the COVID-19 pandemic or to mitigate the risks of COVID-19.

Applying

Applicants must submit an application as follows. Failure to submit an application as described below will result in the application being considered incomplete. Incomplete applications will not be considered for the Tribe’s CARES Act Grant.
